"God is a Gamer" by Ravi Subramanian | Book Review ...

God Is A Gamer is a new thriller from Ravi Subramanian. Although i dont have much experience of reading thrillers but Gone Girl and God Is A Gamer have me a convert. I reviewed Private India last time and this book is way better than that book. This book cannot be put down because of such fast pace and the thrill of reaching the end so that the actual mastermind behind the whole crime comes out.

I finished God is a Gamer in 2 sittings (2 nights). Ravi has used names of real companies all over the book- Visa, mastercard and so on, even stating that they lobbied to prevent other payment processing companies from coming into existence. It is a story indeed, but I wonder how these companies don't mind having their names used in negative way.
